Mahim Al Muntashir Billah

Programmer || Web Developer || Social Worker || Bachelor in Computer Science at Nantong University

Summary

As a teenager at school, I was the kid that other students would communicate with about their phone or laptop problems. I was there to solve any technical problem.
Today, not much has changed. The difference is that now I think creative to solve any web development problems. I am currently working on some projects and learning some new skill.
